तीरथ यात्रा Tirath Yatra

a pilgrimage of Leicester Mandirs

Sponsored Walk

Saturday 20th April 2013

Come join us on our 3rd sponsored walk that will take you to all the Mandirs in Leicester, marvel at the deities and the structure of the Mandirs themselves, understand the diversity within Hinduism.

The Mandirs we will be visiting are Jalaram Mandir, Jain Centre, Hare Krishna Temple (ISKCON), Shri Shirdi Sai Baba, Geeta Bhavan, Radha Krishna Mandir, Hindu Mandir, Sanatan Mandir, Shakti Mandir, Swaminarayan Mandir (BAPS), Shreeji Haveli, Swaminarayan Mandir (ISSO), Shreeji Haveli, Ram Mandir, Shree Murugan Temple & Gayatri Parivar.

We meet at the Jalaram Mandir on Narborough Road at 8.00am for registration and start our walk at 8.30am, Lunch will be provided and there will be refreshments along the way. We walk at steady speed so that it is enjoyable and manageable and we hope to finish around 6.30pm.

There is no age limit and you don't have to complete the whole course, just walk as much as you can.

All the money raised goes to support the work of the Oxford Centre for Hindu Studies. The OCHS is making a great contribution to Hindu education in the UK, offering scholarly courses in cities and online, publications based on excellent research, help and advice to students, scholars and various national bodies. It is perhaps Hinduism's most important national educational resource for those hoping to gain a broader understanding of the faith. It is a very worthy cause that requires support from all of us.
