Tirath Yatra

A pilgrimage of Leicester Temples

Saturday 28th March 2015

Auspicious day of Ram Navmi

What better way to celebrate Ram Navmi then by visiting the beautiful temples of Leicester and raising money for charity. Join us on our sponsored walk that will take you to all the Temples in Leicester, marvel at the deities and the structure of the Temples themselves, understand the diversity within Hinduism.

The Temples we will be visiting are Jalaram Mandir, Jain Centre, Hare Krishna Temple (ISKCON), Shri Shirdi Sai Baba, Geeta Bhavan, Radha Krishna Mandir, Hindu Mandir, Sanatan Mandir, Swaminarayan Mandir (BAPS), Shreeji Haveli, Swaminarayan Mandir (ISSO), Shreeji Haveli, Ram Mandir, Shree Murugan Temple & Gayatri Parivar.

Start at the Jalaram Mandir on Narbarough Road
8.00am registration, walk starts at 8.30am,
Lunch and refreshments will be provided. No age limit, we walk at steady pace so that it is enjoyable and manageable for all.

All the money raised goes to support the work of the Oxford Centre for Hindu Studies. The OCHS is making a great contribution to Hindu education in the UK, offering scholarly courses in cities and online, publications based on excellent research, help and advice to students, scholars and various national bodies. It is perhaps Hinduism's most important national educational resource for those hoping to gain a broader understanding of the faith.
