

Putting Faith back into Faith Schools

Leicester is set to have its first state funded Hindu School. With this comes choice for parents, excitement for community leaders and a potential social debate on the contribution and value of faith schools.

This talk will argue the value of faith schools. It will also outline plans for the Leicester school and give plenty of opportunity for discussion and debate.

Talk given by

Pradip Gajjar Project Director of the
I-Foundation.

Organised by Friends of OCHS (Leicester)

Date: Saturday 20th November 2010

Time: 7.00pm to 9.00pm
